

First experimental photomicrographs with home-made camera, April 1956.

Leptothrix ochracea, first micrograph

Moina, water-flea anterior

Cyclops, water-flea.

Lateral view (above)

Dorsal aspect (right)

These are clumsy and amateurish images but were made at the age of 16 without mentoring and at least demonstrate that that matters did improve as the decades unwound.